A Workshop in Performance production on our Mainstage of a new play by John Fisher. (Note: This play will be presented again at a later date TBA at The Rhino in a production open to the press. This play was previously announced under the working title Something Fabulous by Me!)

A mother and son in a battle of wills. A lover in between. A play about how Proposition 8 effects one family...

Plot: Jack and Dave have lived together for twenty years as domestic partners. Jack's father dies abruptly without ever having told Jack he was ill. Jack's mother Doreen is suddenly homeless as a result of poor financial planning on the part of her and her husband. Jack and Dave take her in and, in spite of tensions, there seems to be the possibility of happy coexistence. But secrets about the past and tensions arising from Jack and Doreen's different attitudes towards Proposition 8 quickly become unendurable.

Theatre Rhinoceros, America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
