The 2014 Rhino New Year's Eve Spectacular returns with a one-performance-only special presentation of the runaway hit musical Shopping. This show has not been performed in SF for four years and this will be your one chance only to catch it with the original cast in this unique Holiday revival. It originally played three years at the Shelton Theatre. All proceeds go to Theatre Rhinoceros. Why not save some money and watch someone else do the shopping? It's fun!

Theatre Rhinoceros, America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
