Joe Orton's raucous sex farce makes its Rhino debut. The playwright, famous from John Lahr's biography Prick Up Your Ears and the Stephen Frears/Alan Bennett film based on that book, never saw this scandalous comedy produced in his life time. Orton's tale of one very horny hospital and its sex starved, gender confused denizens is now a modern classic. See what's cooking as the patients and doctors mix up genders, partners, clothing and sexes. Classic comedy has never been this raunchy or this much fun.

Theatre Rhinoceros, America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
