A staged reading of Truman Capote's *A Christmas Memory

Directed by JoAnne Winter

Monday, December 15, 2008

PERFORMANCE ADDED!: ADDED PERFORMANCE AT 915 PM ON MONDAY, DECEMBER 15 700 PM PERFORMANCE IS SOLD OUT!

Theatre Rhinoceros, 2926 16th Street (at South Van Ness, BART), San Francisco, CA 94103

Because the 7 PM show is completely sold out we are adding a second performance at 915 PM on Monday, December 15th. A reception will be held for both audiences in between the performances at approximately 815 PM.

In Truman Capote's largely autobiographical story of seven-year-old Buddy and his much older cousin Sook, a trip to find fruitcake ingredients becomes a memorable adventure, told through the eyes of Capote's seven-year-old self. A holiday offering for all ages!

THEATER RHINOCEROS (John Fisher, Executive Director), America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.

WORD FOR WORD is the theatre company that transforms classic and contemporary fiction into great performance works for the stage. Word for Word believes in the power of the short story to provide solace, compassion, and insight into our daily lives.

THEATER RHINOCEROS and WORD FOR WORD will collaborate on a full production of short stories by Tennessee Williams, Gertrude Stein, and Armistead Maupin in May, 2009. This staged reading of "A Christmas Memory" is their first venture together.

WHEN: Monday, December 15, 2009: ONE NIGHT ONLY

WHERE: Theatre Rhinoceros, 2926 16th St. (at South Van Ness), San Francisco, CA 94103

TIME: 7 PM (sold out!) and 915 PM (Tickets available.)

TIX: (415) 861-5079, or www.TheRhino.org; Suggested Donation: $20 (Nobody will be turned away for lack of funds)
