*This production of Staircase fills the TBA slot of our current season.

Can this marriage last? Charlie and Harry have been together forever and no one cares. Except the police! But it's 1966 and the times, they are a changin'! Will they change fast enough? Predating even The Boys in the Band, this hysterical comedy was one of the first gay plays to tackle Broadway and the big screen. Join this cuddly but bitchy middle-aged couple for a dark night of the soul, peppered with many laughs. It's Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, but gay!

Theatre Rhinoceros, America's longest running professional queer theatre, develops and produces works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of our queer community.
