Theatre Rhinoceros presents a FREE Zoom presentation:

FALLING SKIES

by Brayden Frascone

Featuring Devin Cunningham and Joe Tally

April 6, 2021 at 7pm FREE!

One Live Performance Only. On-Demand recording will be available after the live performance.

SYNOPSIS:

The Skylight Club is the best gay bar in all of Pittsburgh, but after the death of its lead entertainer, bartender Curtis Jackson must come to terms with the hatred of the world outside its walls. After an unexpected visitor turns up one night, the lines of grief and forgiveness get blurred, and lives will be changed forever.

BIOS:

BRAYDEN FRASCONE (playwright) Brayden Frascone is an Ohio-based playwright and a recent graduate of Ohio University's playwriting BFA program under Erik Ramsey and Charles Smith. In his time at Ohio University, several of his short plays were performed as part of the Student Organization of Undergraduate Playwrights' monthly festivals, for which he also served as President and Producer. He frequently writes commissioned 10-Minute plays for the Massillon Museum's "Big Read" project, supported by the National Endowment for the Arts and Arts Midwest. His play "Falling Skies" was recently selected to be read for the Off-Key Anthem Theatre Collective's (Chicago) inaugural new play festival, and received its world premiere in Sydney, Australia as part of Theatre Travels NO: INTERMISSION festival.

THEATRE RHINOCEROS - Founded in 1977, The Rhino is the longest running LGBT theatre in the nation. We develop and produce works of theatre that enlighten, enrich, and explore both the ordinary and the extraordinary aspects of our queer community. Our emphasis is on new works, works about under-represented members of the larger queer community, and revivals of lesser known queer classics. Over the years Theatre Rhinoceros has received many awards of recognition including: Theatre Rhinoceros Day in the City Proclamation from Mayor Gavin Newsom, State Assembly Certificate of Recognition from Senator Mark Leno, recognitions from Congressperson Nancy Pelosi and Assembly Persons Tom Ammiano and Carole Migden, numerous Cable Car, BATCC and TBA Awards and Nominations, and the GLAAD Media Award for Best LGBT Theatre.
